

Estate planning

Our Estate Planning & Probate Practice group assists individuals and families in structuring their financial affairs to reduce or eliminate the expense of probate administration and applicable Estate & Gift taxes. In addition, our Estate Planning & Probate Practice group is experienced in representing clients in probate proceedings. We also assist clients in establishing and administering conservatorships and guardianships. Our commitment is to provide flexible, cost effective solutions that maximize privacy and minimize taxes and administrative expenses.

We provide legal advice and services in connection with the following matters:

Charitable Gifts and Trusts

Conservatorships

Durable Power of Attorney

Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care

Family Limited Liability Partnerships

General Estate Planning

Guardianships

Inter Vivos Gifts

Irrevocable Trust Agreements

Probate Administration

Revocable Trust Agreements (Living Wills)

Wills

Our Estate Planning & Probate Practice group attorneys use these Estate Planning devices to create a solution that meets the individual needs of our clients and their families. In developing an estate plan, our attorneys frequently call upon the expertise of our business organization and business transaction attorneys to assure that our clients' needs are met in both their family and business contexts. We bring a professional commitment to our clients' needs, which often involve matters of health, declining quality of life and mortality. We believe our role is to develop solutions that eliminate anxiety and offer comfort and confidence during these transitional times in our clients' lives.
