

Litigation Defense

Our Litigation Defense attorneys represent corporate and private entities as well as insurance carriers and their insureds utilizing our substantial experience to achieve cost effective resolution of disputes. Our attorneys are well prepared to defend bodily injury, property damage, products liability, economic loss and other claims in the broadest context, including mass torts and class actions. We defend self insured entities as well as cases arising under personal lines, commercial policies, professional and employment liability, surplus lines and excess policies.

Our attorneys involved in Litigation Defense regularly engage in negotiations, mediations, arbitrations and trials. They have the skill, experience, resources, judgment and work ethic necessary to resolve complex disputes effectively through settlement, dispositive motions in advance of trial or through trial to a final order, judgment or award, and appeal if necessary.

Our Litigation Defense practice includes:
