In the Spring 2010, Dillingham partner Tom Klitgaard was certified as a mediator by the International Mediation Institute in the Hague, The Netherlands. Tom has been a mediator for many years in complex transactions where business experience is useful. Sample comments are “Mr. Klitgaard is a great mediator. He went beyond most mediators I have dealt with”; “He is able to work with diverse parties and issues”; “He maintained the respect of both parties and successfully used various methods to reduce tension and maintain civil discourse.”

In the Fall 2010, The University of San Francisco School of Law is again offering Tom’s two unit course on Asian Legal Systems to second and third year students and MBA candidates. The course focuses on China and compares its legal system with the legal system of the United States and with the legal systems of surrounding Asian countries, including various means of dispute resolution and the nature of competition law and intellectual property law. Tom also discusses the impact of religions and culture on the legal systems of Asia.

Auditors are welcome.

2009 Queen's Bench Bar President

Barbara L. Harris Chiang elected as 2009 President of the Queen's Bench Bar Association.

Barbara L. Harris Chiang, newly elected partner in Dillingham & Murphy, LLP, was recently elected as 2009 President of the Queen’s Bench Bar Association. Queen's Bench was formed in 1921 by a group of women lawyers frustrated by the resistance of male lawyers to their participation in the local bar association. Queen’s Bench advances the interests of women in law and society, and plays an integral part in furthering the progress of women in the legal profession. It is a non-profit voluntary membership organization made up of attorneys, judges and law students.
